THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P.M. SAYEED): (a) and (b) Government's attention has been drawn on a number of occasions to infiltration of Bangladeshi nationals into India. This is a serious problem over which Government have also expressed their concern.

To a question asked by pressmen, the Chief Minister of Assam had indicated that the rate of growth of population in Assam during 1971—1991 was less than the country's growth rate as a whole and hence, according to him, the Census figures did not show any unusual increase in the State's population. He suggested that on the basis of the Census figures it could not be said that Assam was full of foreigners.

(c) and (d) A series of measures have been taken by the Government to curb the problem of infiltration of Bangladeshi nationals into India. These measures include raising of additional battalions of Border Security Force, reduction of gaps
